ORDER

It was reported by the counsel for the petitioners that he has already relinquished the vakalath and informed the client. This Court directed notice to be issued to the petitioners. Notice is not returned after service. The notice was sent in the address shown in the Memorandum of Revision. Notice to the petitioners is declared as served. There is no appearance for the petitioners.

2. Learned counsel for the respondent submits that even after the impugned order was passed, the court below passed subsequent orders and those orders were also challenged before this Court. It is also submitted that the Revision has practically become infructuous.

Accordingly, the Civil Revision Petition is dismissed as infructuous.
